It proved to be a day for the bettors as the favorites came through when Ray Wellman, Vulcan, won the race, but only after a pitch-off with Ken Westlin of Calgary who literally

Highway Entrance Plan Will Be Discussed

The monthly meeting of the Vulcan District Board of Trade is set for Thursday, July 6, and on the short business agenda planned thus far will be the matter of the highway entrance made safe for traffic entering and leaving town and a representative of the committee concerned presented the Board's case to officials in Edmonton.

A reply has been received from Edmonton together with the government's proposed plan to remedy the situation, and these will be dealt with during the business session of the noon luncheon.

Grass Fire Threatens Fuel

The new Pumper Truck recently purchased by the Rural Fire Protection Co-operative got its first taste of serious action last Friday, when the Vulcan department was called to a fire at the Norman Hilz farm which came dangerously close to setting off his fuel storage building.

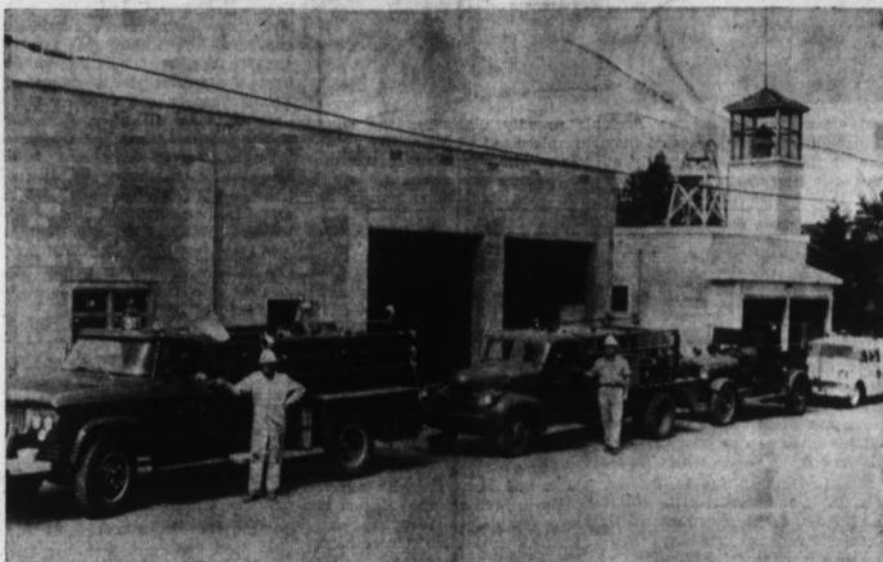

The call to the farm, four miles north and four east of town, came in at 10 minutes past five in the afternoon and when the truck arrived the flames were leaping around the fuel building and Norman at first waved the truck away fearing the stored diesel and gasoline would ignite.

Norman had been burning weeds near his buildings and the fire got away from him, burned along a corral fence and also took a hay stack. It was in line with the fuel storage and had the shed gone there was a down-hill run to several granaries and other farm buildings.

Water was taken from a water trough with a portable pump, part of the truck's equipment, but the blaze was controlled without depleting the supply.

Norman is a member of the Co-operative and with a relieved sigh as he surveyed the farm still in tact, he promised himself he'd never burn another weed.

burned up the course in the race by tying the course record for nine holes with a 3-under par 30. Third spot and show money went to Gordon Stauffer of Turner Valley.

The new fire truck of the Vulcan Rural Fire Protection Co-operative arrived recently and is now ready for work. Shown above is the full fire-fighting strength available for town and district, with the new Dodge in front of the 1943 Chev and the old 1929 job which is now a stand-by unit available in case of emergency. In the background is the new cinder-brick fire hall now being brought to completion.

Standing beside the first truck is fireman Roy McLennan while fire chief Bob Johnson is at the door of the second pumper.

The new pumper was made by King Seagrave Company of Woodstock, Ontario and the truck is a 1961 Dodge model D-500, V-8. It is equipped with a 500 gallons per minute front-mounted pump, a 700 gallon tank and a portable pump with an eight horse power motor. Existing hose and other equipment was taken from the old truck and now each of the two pumpers to be used has approximately 1,100 feet of two and one-half inch hose and 450 feet of one and one-half inch.

Cost of the truck was approximately $9,750 with some saving effected by Lawrence Orchard who went to Ontario and ferried it to Vulcan.

Originally the cut-off date for the purchase of memberships in the Co-op at $35 per share was set for the end of June but at a Tuesday night meeting of the directors it was decided to extend the single share purchase date to July 15. After that date cost of joining the Co-op will be $70. For those not yet members of the organization more information may be had by contacting Howard Spaeth or Bob Jamison.

Champion Pioneer, Mrs. MacDougall Contract Is For 10 Miles Start Base Course Work West End Highway 23

An oldtimer of the Champion district, Mrs. Nellie Maud McDougall, died in Vulcan at the age of 77 years, after a lengthy illness. She was born March 11, 1884 in Port William, Ont., where she resided until moving to Duluth, Minn., in 1893.

At Duluth on Feb. 26, 1908 she married John David McDougall, who homesteaded in the Cleverville district in March 1905, and she came west as a bride the same year.

Mrs. McDougall was a charter member of the Cleverville Pioneers Association. In the early days she was very active in the first Red Cross organization which was formed, later in the Women's Institute and the United Church Women's Association. She was honored with a life membership in the Champion Women's Association at the dedication of the new United Church there.

She was predeceased by her husband John David McDougall on Jan. 18, 1937 and one son, Charles McDougall, April 16, 1938.

Mrs. McDougall is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Karl Maack, South River, Ont., Mrs. Stephen Cowgill, Champion, Mrs. Calvin Hollister, Vulcan; and three brothers, Carl Wiles, Yakima, Wash., Williams Wiles, Seattle, Wash., and Charles Wiles, Champion; four grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

Services were held from the Champion United Church on Tuesday, June 27, conducted by Rev. Peter Dawson, assisted by Rev. D. A. Sharpe. Pall bearers were Andrew Dunipace, Max Groves, Alfred Fleetwood, Oscar Hagg, Robert Maxwell and Jock McIntyre.

Vulcan Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements and burial was in Archmount Memorial Gardens, Lethbridge.

Lomond Sports On July 4

Lomond's Annual Sports Day, sponsored by the Lomond Lions Club will be held on Tuesday, July 4, this year and will feature a three-game baseball tournament with teams from Enchant, Brooks, Vauxhall and Lomond. Game times are 12 noon, 3:00 p.m. and 5:30 p.m.

A band will be in attendance for the opening parade at 9:30 a.m. and there will be a midway on the grounds. Softball and horseshoe tournaments will round out the day's activities, along with sports for the children, and at night there will be bingo and a dance.

Pessimists are just average people who can't kid themselves.

The joining of the pavement from east to west on Highway 23 is still a long way off but slowly drawing closer with work beginning recently on the west 10 miles of the road.

Equipment is working from the junction east of High River to the turn-off south of Blackie, and has been on the project for about two weeks. A new type of highway process similar to that applied on Vulcan streets, is being used on this 27 miles of road and the base course is laid from the junction to the first turn at Frank Lake. Last weekend a three-foot high strip of gravel mixture running part way along the road by the north end of the lake was the biggest bottle-neck to traffic but was being watered down, and traffic was moving easily through construction.

The firm of Peter Klewitt and Sons Company of Canada Ltd., are doing the work. Their tender for the job was $175,889.

There have been no contracts let for the asphalt surfacing of this highway portion and also it is not known whether more will be done this year or whether work will be continued next year but it is presumed that now the project is begun, the remaining 17 miles will be completed next year.

Golf Notes

Coming events at the Vulcan Golf Club this weekend include the playing of the men's fourball competition for the Cliff McAskill Trophy. Any two men members can play in this competition as partners and handicaps are used so a good turnout is hoped for on Saturday and Sunday, and entries should be turned in at the clubhouse immediately. Playoffs will be on a knock-out basis so winners will keep playing and losers are eliminated. Starting times will be from 10:00 a.m. to 11:00 a.m. on Saturday, July 1.

A Junior Tournament is planned for Monday, June 3, at 1:00 p.m. and all junior members, 18 and under to 12 years are eligible to compete.

Mayor and Mrs. J. Lundy Findlay have accepted an invitation to attend the opening day of the Lethbridge and District Exhibition on Wednesday, July 5. This will include participation in the parade that morning, luncheon at the Marquis Hotel and rodeo and infield events in the afternoon as well as the grandstand performance and chuckwagon races in the evening. Mayor and Mrs. Findlay were guests for a similar program on their opening day last year and reported a thoroughly enjoyable day.

Other Business
Secretary M. K. Sinclair was appointed enumerator for the purpose of compiling the 1961 voters' list.

Mrs. Lola Findlay was appointed to conduct the 1961 census of the Town of Vulcan.

A bylaw providing for the removal of the Calgary Power Ltd. franchise for a ten-year period was given three readings and passed.

Council decided to have two 400-watt street lights installed along the entrance to town from Highway 23.

The 1961 mill rates of 28 for schools, 28 for municipal purposes and 4 for hospital were set and the necessary bylaw passed.

A bylaw was introduced to provide for adjustment of taxes on parcels of land recently annexed to the town.

Councillor Frank Burchak was appointed deputy mayor for the next three months and, as head of the police committee, was authorized to attend a meeting at Lethbridge on June 21 to discuss a uniform traffic bylaw for the towns and villages in Southern Alberta.

Regarding water accounts more than two years in arrears, the secretary was instructed to advise those concerned by registered letter that unless the bills were paid by June 30, water service would be discontinued.

The police department was authorized to purchase a tranquilizer gun for use in enforcing the dog bylaws.

The purchase or rental of a street sweeper was again discussed and left in abeyance pending receipt of further information from

Weather Still Dry, No Improvement In Crop Picture

Hot, dry weather continued over the past weekend. High winds caused some soil drifting on Monday and although temperatures were slightly lower on Tuesday and there was little wind there was no indication or prospect of rain.

Crops have been standing up well to the heat although there has been little growth but in some parts of the county are deteriorating steadily. There is no hope of even a normal crop being harvested although immediate rains would help grain crops, feed and pastures. Haying is under way.

Firemen Compete In Hose-laying Competition

A four-man crew of the Vulcan Fire Department took part in the Southern Alberta Fire Hose Laying competition last Saturday at Milk River. It must be first stated the local gang came eighth in the time trials but secondly, it was the first whirl at this sort of thing by the Vulcan gang.

Thirteen crews from many Southern Alberta points and as far north as Red Deer were entered with Coleman winning.

The object in this competition is hook up hose from a pumper, turn up the pressure, knock over a target with the water stream, cut off the pressure in the hose with clamps, change the middle of the three lengths used and hit another target.

The Vulcan water crew was composed of Andy Broere on the nozzle, Ray Beckner and Roy McLennan on the hose changing and Walter "Doc" Stewart at the pumper and handling the hose clamp. Best time for them was 40-plus seconds in the one run and a wash-out in the other. The boys say they were down into the low 20 second mark on one run but "Doc" had a new type of hose clamp and a few extra pounds pressure to fight, which almost blew him out of town.

In practice runs at Vulcan the two weeks previous to the competition the boys came down to under 25 seconds in their time so next year they'll tie a load of rocks on "Doc" and take on all comers.

Precision Machine Co.

At a special council meeting held last week, the terms of an agreement with the town of well drilling firm of Henning & Karl were discussed and the town's solicitor was instructed to draw up a proper contract.

Not a sit-down strike, a "march to Ottawa" or kitchen line-up is this string of district farm folk. "We're here to get something for those grasshoppers before they come to get us," said one farmer. Taken Tuesday, June 13, outside the County office a group of about 50 were lined up through the noon hour waiting for a 150 gallon shipment of "hopper-killing" Dieldrin due in from Lethbridge. At that point in the grasshopper war the spray was critically scarce compared with the amount needed and the agriculture staff, Norman Soder and Clarence Roth were on the phone steadily keeping farmers up to date as to when shipments were due.

Two gallons were given farmers applying for the first time for the chemical and one gallon went to those who had received less than five gallons previously. Five gallons will cover roughly 160 acres and is the cheapest and most effective chemical. It is sold through the Department of Agriculture, Field Crops Branch and costs 15 to 16 cents per acre to apply while the "hoppers" are young, while other brands run from 26 to 35 cents per acre and up under the same circumstances.

With the lineup starting at about 9:00 a.m., by noon the history of grasshopper and gopher infestation and changing methods of combatting the pests were gone over and the odd old-timer seemed still of the opinion that a mixture of sawdust, bran and strychnine was still as good a control method as any. One story, enlarged upon somewhat through the years, was about the farmer who left his team of horses tied to a fence and before his return the grasshoppers moved in. He came back to find no team but several "hoppers" leaning against the fence picking their teeth and two others playing horse-shoes!

Theories are worthless until they are harnessed to industry.

The above pile of quilts is now a project of the past for the local Red Cross and Mrs. C. L. Kuykendall in particular. Since April 1, Mrs. Kuykendall has spent many hours making the quilts and 34 were shipped out last weekend. Materials are supplied by the Red Cross and Friday "Bees" have been held in a room of the Legion Hall, with helpers coming from the Thigh Hill and Reid Hill Institutes. Since 1958 Mrs. Kuykendall has sewn 619 articles of clothing besides folding hundred of wipes. Particularly active during the last war in Red Cross work, this farm wife helped make 115 quilts mostly large ones, knitted 63 men's sweaters and sewed hundreds of garments. Mr. Kuykendall explained that in those years she was continually travelling from the farm into town so she had three sweaters on the go at one time, one at home, another in the car and the third she worked on in town.

Safety Rules For Trailer Hauling

Are you towing a trailer behind your car or truck? If you are, check the following requirements and see whether or not your trailer is safe to be on the highway.

Tail Lamp—At least one red light mounted at the rear that is visible for a distance of 500 feet, mounted not less than 20" nor more than 72" from the ground.

Brake Light—Mounted at the rear, displaying a red light that is visible for a distance of 100 feet in daylight and that can be lighted upon application of the foot brake.

Signal Lights—On boat trailers to indicate turning are not mandatory, but are beneficial for safety. Hand signals are legal but not practical for night driving. It is recommended that two light units be installed on either side of the trailer incorporating the tail lights, signal lights and brake lights. This arrangement also protects the boat owners.

Clearance Lights—Required if trailer over 80 inches in width.

Reflectors—One red reflector of 3" diameter required to be placed at the rear of the trailer.

Brakes—Not required unless over 5000 lbs., but unit must be able to stop within 30 feet at 20 miles per hour.

Tires—There are no regulations regarding tires but unsafe tires will cause serious accidents.

Mirrors—Required to be placed in a position so that the driver has a clear view of the roadway to the rear.

Hitches—Must be of sufficient strength to pull all weight towed and consist of one hitch and drawbar, and one safety chain or other separate means of attachment.

Permits—No license is required in Alberta. Permits are required for moving house trailers over ten feet in width or overall length of 60 feet. House trailers, if occupied, are required to be licensed under the Mobile Homes Act.

Insurance—A trailer endorsement is required on your car insurance policy when using a trailer. There is special trailer insurance.

REGULAR FRIDAY and SATURDAY SALES

Please Note: —We are open every Thursday night until 11 p.m. Please bring your livestock in early.

LAST WEEK'S MARKET REPORT

FRIDAY, JUNE 23— Hot, dry weather continues and it is having an adverse effect on our livestock markets. However our market is on par or better than those elsewhere. Please consult us as to market conditions at any time. Good to low choice butcher steers $18.50 to $20.50; Good to low choice butcher heifers $16.50 to $18.20; Our cows topped at $14.00 with all prospects pointing to lower prices. Bulls were steady up to $17.00 but at this price they had to be the right kind. Feeder steers were lower at from $17.00 to $20.50, depending upon kind, weight and quality. Feeder heifers are still slow and hard to move. Baby calves $15.00 to $35.00. Cows and calves— The market has lost its interest and consignors had better forget that $175.00 to $220.00 bracket at least until weather conditions change.

We had another heavy run of hogs on Saturday, June 24, with prices barely steady. The hog and cattle market depends on the same conditions: Weaner pigs $5.00 to $9.00; Feeder pigs $9.50 to $15.00; Heavy feeder pigs and these are our best sellers $15.50 to $27.50; Piggy sows $37.50 to $70.00; Boars $15.00 to $30.00; Milk Cows $135.00 to $200.00.

Another of Bruce Roe's photos of old-time Vulcan appears above and carries with it quite a story of the growth of the Vulcan Co-op through which much business was carried on from the year 1912. Taken in 1915, the photo shows the activity at the Vulcan Co-op and on the near wagon facing the camera is Mr. Roe, piling a load of granary lumber to house his bumper crop of that year. Much of the background information for this history was gathered last week when Mr. Roe visited 84 year old Barney Lummage, now in retirement on the farm of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Denby in the Thigh Hill district. Mr. Lummage home-stayed in 1905 on S.W. section 2-16-23, near the Champion Coal Mines, but took an interest in the lumber business as Bruce Roe recalls buying lumber and cement from Barney at Nanton in 1909, before the advent of the CPR. Early in 1912 rail traffic permitted the handling of such commodities in town and with the formation of the Vulcan Co-op came Mr. Lummage as manager. At that time the Co-op's premises were located where the machinery building of M. R. Morrison Ltd., is now located, opposite their main office. In 1915 the Co-op bought out the Crown Lumber Company the present location of Revelstoke Sawmill Co. Ltd. and it is there this picture was taken. Guy Johnson was next manager of the Co-op 'till approximately 1922 when Ed Caruthers took over. In a later year Larry Dawson managed the business and was with it 'till it was sold to Revelstoke in April of 1948. In its 36 years of operation the Vulcan Co-op saw a large turnover of directors whose guidance was given not only to lumber sales but the handling of livestock and grain on a commission basis. The horses and wagons of that era are gone, likely some of the men in the photo have passed on but lumber from this yard can still be found in farm or town buildings.

Mr. and Mrs. Stan Brown, Mr. and Mrs. G. Elder and Mr. and Mrs. T. Daw and family were among the ones that attended the Legion zone picnic at Gleichen Town Park on Sunday, June 25.

David Nelson was discharged from the Vulcan Hospital last week.

A family reunion in honor of Mrs. Clara KingSmith's birthday was held at Lake McGregor on Sunday, June 25. Relatives outside the district included the four KingSmith boys and their families, namely, Pat, Eddie, Ken and Bob, all of Calgary.

Miss Eileen Edwards returned to Calgary to resume work the forepart of the week.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor of The Advocate, RE: VULCAN TRAILER COURT

Some of us in the so-called trailer court feel that something should be done about the prevailing condition of said trailer court. As we didn't know whom to approach, we felt the local paper would be a sound medium in which to view our complaints.

Some of us could be called transient but transient or not we all take pride in our homes just as people in houses take pride in theirs. If some trailer dwellers were sure that they would be here semi-permanent they would in all probability attempt to establish a yard if given any encouragement. However, this shouldn't be necessary, the court should provide suitable grounds which the trailer dweller could maintain. By suitable grounds, we don't necessarily wish for lawns and cement or paved driveways and roads although these exist in some courts and would be nice but only ask for a leveling of the grounds, weeds cut and driveways gravelled.

The grounds in the Vulcan trailer court are disgraceful; it is so uneven and full of holes that you risk a broken limb by going out doors after dark. There is no yard light provided — the light is there but not hooked up. To look out our front windows, we must view messy, smelly, fly-ridden garbage cans which are always overflowing; a pile of useless boards and lumber, bricks and general junk; plus cement forms, which are piled so precariously that it's a wonder some child has not been hurt badly or even killed near it. There is absolutely no place for children to play without getting hurt or filthy. There are unfinished lots where large holes prevail needless to say these gaping holes are dangerous and filled with water could easily be the site of a young child's drowning.

Some time ago your paper published an article dealing with Alberta trailer laws; one of which I believe stated that a suitable building with showers, toilets, washing machines was to be provided by the first of the year 1961. There are no such facilities here; the clothes lines are not even in proper repair. For this we pay $25 a month part of which we understand goes to the town for taxes; our power is extra as are our heating fuel, cooking gas and telephones. No one would mind this rate of rent if the court was pleasant to live in.

In the past year the only improvements made to the court has been the installation of underground wiring which was, we understand, compulsory. Rent money should be returned to the improvement of the court, making it a desirable place to live. As it is, several people refuse to move here and go elsewhere even though it means extra miles to their work. More people means increased business turnover and trailer people buy locally the same as anyone else.

The site for the court is good, the traffic is light and therefore reasonably safe for children and it

The Champion Students' Union wishes to extend their thanks to all those who helped to make the 1961 Closing Exercises such a success. A special thank-you to the Home and School who sponsored such a lovely banquet and to Mrs. W. Warren who convened the banquet. Thanks again. 47-x

I extend a hearty thank you to all Home and School members who have given me such loyal support during my two years in office. A special thanks at this time to Edna Warren who so capably and willingly headed our banquet for 150 guests and our picnic for over 300. —Helen Sanderson, Champion.

is not far from downtown; but it is an eyesore to the town of Vulcan. It's no wonder some people consider mobile home dwellers to be scum after seeing the conditions in which we have to live. Certainly, we know some people don't care what kind of name they give the trailer people but please don't judge all by a few. We are just ordinary people and not content to live in these conditions, but what can we do — there's no place else in town where we are allowed to park.

The town of Vulcan is nicely planned and well kept, the residents and merchants pleasant and friendly.

Please let the trailer court be a credit to your town, not a detriment. We appeal to you to just drive through the court to view for yourselves the present condition and try to visualize yourself in our positions. Thank you for hearing us out and for the allotted space.

We remain, Mobile Home Dwellers.

To the Editor of The Advocate, Champion, Alta. June 24, 1961

Dear Editor, We the students of the Senior Class of Champion High School would like to express our sincere thanks to Mr. Cummins for making our closing exercises a wonderful success and a memorable night for us. We want Mr. Cummins to know that we really appreciate his efforts and co-operation. In spite of the great obstacle which unexpectedly presented itself, Mr. Cummins was very tactful, handling the disillusioning situation in a manner which made us very proud.

Mr. Cummins, thanks for a wonderful year at Champion. The Senior Class of C.H.S.

To the Editor of The Advocate, Dear Sir,

Thank you Mrs. Ulrich for your timely letter published in the recent issue of the Advocate. I hereby publicly apologize to you and all our Catholic friends for not serving a meat substitute at our banquet. It was an inexcusable oversight and we richly deserve your remarks. We knew better, we had never goofed in other years and I can only say it must have been the heat. Kindly exonerate our principal and our Catholic member of all blame as they were not on this committee or this oversight would never have occurred.

We were very sorry you were embarrassed at the quip re-majoring in Math 10 — for three years. The Grade 12's were merely doing a bit of ribbing all in fun. Personally I believe anyone with "Bruce and the Spider" tenacity should be highly commended.

Once again, thank you Mrs. Ulrich for publishing our obvious errors. I do hope that you remember that these were committed by individuals, that our organization is and always will be one whose aim is, "To obtain the best for every child according to his mental, physical, social and spiritual needs." Please join us in fulfilling this high aim. We need your help.

A very penitent past president, Helen Sanderson.

50 Years Of Champion History To Be Marked By July 3rd Celebration

Fifty years ago the Canadian Pacific Railway Company chose a townsite and named it Champion. For what reason this name was chosen is not important, but the people who populated the village and the district are. A very small number of people lived in the small community of Cleverville; they gathered up their buildings, stock-in-trade and other bits and pieces and moved to Champion. During the 50 years that followed, history was made. When the parade moves along the streets on Monday, July 3, 1961, events will be recalled that took place during these 50 years. The first twins born in the district were six years old when Champion received its charter. The year before homesteaders watched a fire scream over their precious pasture and the "Fireguard" was plowed. The Fireguard road is still there reminding the oldtimers of that grim siege. There were a great many "Firsts" in 1911. The Savoy Hotel, built by Guy Walner, opened for business in June of 1911. Steel was laid through Champion. The first religious service was held in the Methodist Church. This service was conducted by Rev. P. H. Neville. While we are now enjoying the use of natural gas, as early as 1911, John Fath who lived west of Champion went out to examine a well he had dug. Natural gas escaping from the well caused an explosion which was seen and heard for miles around. The Fath family used the gas for outdoor cooking.

The coal mines were more fully developed during this year and one mine is still producing. In 1911 G. F. Smith began serving the town with dairy products and produce from his truck garden. For years the pioneers, who were mostly American, held an annual celebration on July 4.

The first council meeting was held in Percy Watson's store on June 2, 1911. The members of the first council were Percy Watson, Percy Hansen and Vincent McLure. W. A. Carmichael was the secretary-treasurer. One of the first business transactions carried out by the council was calling for tenders for the construction of wooden sidewalks to be built on both sides of Mountain Street between Alberta and Railroad Ave.

The Alberta Pacific Grain Company built the first grain elevator in 1912. E. Sales was the grain buyer.

The first constable was C. St. Luke, at a salary of $10 per month. The telephone office which opened in 1912, was a part time exchange and was operated by Clara Diemert. Father Bwausoleil was the parish priest, when the Roman Catholic Church was constructed in 1912 on the Fath Hill. A severe hail storm wiped out the crops in 1912.

The following year Champion's first school was constructed. Two of the teachers were Don Patterson and Harry Hill. Since that time two schools have been constructed and the original school has been removed.

The Champion Masonic Lodge, No. 84, A.F. and A.M. was organized on April 8, 1913 with 10 charter members. The first officers of the lodge were W. B. Blachly, W.M., John H. Miller, Sr., Warden; Jackson N. Beaubier, Jr., Warden.

Movies were shown as early as 1911, but not until 1915 were movies shown regularly. This was the year of the "Million Bushel Crop." Champion was known as the "Million Bushel Town." One million bushels of wheat were shipped that year. Fred Alcock's land yielded 85 bushels per acre; J. N. Beaubier's harvest was 72 bushels of wheat per acre.

Mrs. Ella Sisson was the music teacher and she held her annual recitals in Marks' Hall.

During the 50 years three curling rinks have been built in the village. The first, consisting of two sheets of ice, was built in 1919 behind the hotel. The building was moved to the sub-division in 1927, and the new one consisting of three sheets of ice was constructed in 1953. H. C. Jopling and Alva Baker were among the first curlers in Champion.

In 1920 the Order of the Eastern Star was formed with Mrs. J. N. Beaubier Worthy Matron and George Orr as Worthy Patron. This same year 42 homesteaders of the Cleverville district met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Smith to organize the Cleverville Pioneer Club. Since that time an annual meeting, program and dance have been held during the winter. This year the club will celebrate its 40th Anniversary. Frank Little has played for 33 of these dances.

The Community Hall was built in 1927; equipment for movies was installed in 1945.

The Roman Catholic Church was moved to its present site in 1928, with an addition built in 1934.

Champion and district had its "Hungry Thirties" as did other districts. Progress was virtually at a standstill. Even with fairly good crops, money was scarce because of the low price of wheat.

Highway "23" was gravelled in 1930 and 1931.

When war was declared in 1939, Eric Diemert, only son of Mr. and Mrs. William Diemert was the first to answer the call of his country from Champion.

During the years a number of clubs have been organized in the district, dealing with social welfare at home and abroad. They have also had a great influence in promoting friendship throughout the country. Among the clubs are: The Women's Association of the United Church; the Catholic Women's League; the Relief Society of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints; the Red Cross (disbanded); the Modern Woodmen of America (disbanded); Elk's Lodge (disbanded); Royal Purple (disbanded); Royal Neighbors (disbanded); Knights of Pythias (disbanded); the Home and School Association; the 4-H Club; Amity and Felicity Clubs; the Lions Club; the Canadian Legion, British Empire Service League; the Ladies' Auxiliary to the Canadian Legion. During the past few years the Women's Association is composed of two groups, the Afternoon Group and the Evening Group. The FUA was organized in 1955. C. J. Versluys was appointed president.

During the years four churches have been built in the town, the Roman Catholic Church, the United Church, the Free Evangelical Church and the LDS Church.

After buying water by the barrel, and depending on cisterns to supplement this, for 40 years, in 1952 a water system was completed. The water is piped from a reservoir, which depended on precipitation and run-off for its supply, until this year. Due to a very dry year in 1960, very little snow and rain in 1961, the supply in the reservoir became uncomfortably low. Two wells have been drilled and are supplying the homes with sufficient water.

Harry E. Smith was the first president of the Lions Club which began with 25 charter members when it was formed in 1945. In 1951 the Lions Club, the town and district farmers purchased a crash wagon from the Department of Transport. A fire-hall was constructed adjacent to the Village Office in 1952 to house the equipment, thus completing a very efficient fire department.

During the past ten years several important buildings have been built in Champion. A new school was completed in 1953; In 1954 a modern post office was completed. The Alberta Wheat Pool completed the most modern elevator in Alberta, with Ernie White as buyer. A new United Church was completed and dedicated in 1954. This church was built on the tract of land kept in trust for years by Mrs. Wm. Ulrich, whose son Art still farms in the district. Several modern homes have been built. Some are occupied by retired business men and farmers who prefer to live in a small town where they are close to their families and old friends.

During the years local businesses have changed hands many times with many of the oldtimers moving away. The Champion Groceries, owned by Mrs. Libby La-tiff and managed by Ferris Bouz-yan is the only business that has not changed hands during the past 50 years. Dan McCrae, F.W. Fleming and Adam Ferguson are still living on their homesteads. Harold Tindall is still living on his homestead and he does his own farming.

Champion with its surrounding community has made great strides during its 50 golden years, with the past few years introducing sewage disposal system, natural gas, paved highway and covered skating rink. It is part of the Little Bow Hospital District and enjoys the use of a fully modern hospital recently built at Carman-gay. The Little Bow Park is the gathering place for the community, and others come from Calgary, Nanton, High River, Claresholm, Lethbridge, etc., to enjoy the superb boating facilities made available to them. This year Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Petronch are operating a booth at the park, and with added kitchen facilities, everyone is finding it a veritable oasis, where a long weekend or a few hours may be spent with pleasure.

Persons attending the celebrations on Monday, July 3, will find items of great interest gathered by the Cleverville Pioneer Club. They will be seen at the School Auditorium. Pictures, marriage and birth registers, household appliances, etc., will be on display. If you have anything of this nature, the Pioneer Club would be pleased to display it for you. Everything will receive attention and care will be taken to ensure the return to the owner.

This has been a very brief resume of the 50 golden years. Let us gather on Monday, July 3, to pay homage to those hardy souls who pioneered. They who came to this young land to homestead, start businesses and pave the way for those who came later. But let us not forget those who picked up the torch and carried it on to others who have not let it die. It took courage 50 years ago; it still demands a brand of courage to meet the change of times. But we in Champion and district are proud of our village and district and the citizens who are close-knit in a bond of friendship.

The CASE of the MISSING PRESERVES

DONNA. I STARTED WITH THE SAME AMOUNT OF FRUIT AND GOT ONLY 7 JARS OF JELLY. HOW DID YOU GET MORE?

I USE THE "CERTO METHOD". MARY. MAKES UP TO HALF AGAIN AS MANY JARS FASTER AND EASIER TOO!

YOU SEE, WITH CERTO YOU ONLY BOIL THE JELLY FOR ONE MINUTE. SO MUCH LESS OF THE QUANTITY AND THE FLAVOUR BOILS AWAY THAN WITH THE LONG-BOIL METHOD AND YOUR JAMS AND JELLIES ALWAYS SET!

SO THAT'S WHY YOUR FRUIT MADE MORE JELLY THAN MINE! I'M GOING TO TRY THIS CERTO RECIPE, TOO!

RASPBERRY AND RHUBARB JELLY

Yield: about 12 medium glasses (6 lbs. jelly)
4 cups juice (about 1 quart ripe red raspberries and 2½ lbs. rhubarb)
7 cups (3 lbs.) sugar
1 bottle Certo fruit pectin
First, prepare the juice. Crush about 1 quart fully ripe red raspberries. Cut in 1-inch pieces (do not peel) about 2½ pounds rhubarb. Place fruits in jelly cloth or bag and squeeze out juice. Measure 4 cups into a very large saucepan.
Then make the jelly. Add sugar to juice in saucepan and mix well. Place over high heat and bring to a boil, stirring constantly. At once stir in Certo. Then bring to a full rolling boil and boil hard 1 minute, stirring constantly. Remove from heat, skim off foam with metal spoon, and pour quickly into glasses. Cover jelly at once with ¼ inch hot paraffin.

FREE! Send for your free copy of "The Jelly Maker's Manual" to General Foods, Kitchens, Dept. J1, Cobourg, Ontario.
